The research done on this benchbook is current through February 4, 2003. This benchbook is not intended to be an authoritative statement by the Justices of the Michigan Supreme Court regarding any of the substantive issues discussed. However, it does represent the consensus of the author and the advisory committee members regarding these issues.

Acknowledgments

The Juvenile Justice Benchbook: Delinquency & Criminal Proceedings (Revised Edition) was funded by a grant from the State of Michigan, Department of State Police, Michigan Justice Training Commission. The Michigan Justice Training Commission also funded the first edition of this publication. The Michigan Judicial Institute (MJJ) thanks the Michigan Justice Training Commission for its generous support.

Although this benchbook is primarily intended for use by Circuit Court judges and referees presiding over delinquency cases and criminal cases involving juveniles, it also contains information useful to law enforcement officers, court personnel, prosecuting attorneys, and defense attorneys. It is hoped that the benchbook will be of use to anyone who participates in the juvenile justice system in Michigan.

Work on both the first edition and the revised edition of this publication was overseen by Advisory Committees made up of judges, referees, probation officers, prosecuting attorneys, defense attorneys, court administrators, and other experts. The Advisory Committee members assisted the author in selecting topics for discussion and organizing the material in both editions of the benchbook. They spent many hours reviewing drafts of each chapter as both editions of this benchbook were prepared. MJJ gratefully acknowledges the time, helpful advice, and expertise contributed by the Advisory Committee members.

The revised edition of this benchbook was researched and written by MJJ Publications/Program Manager Tobin Miller. Mary Ann McDaid, MJJ Multimedia Specialist, provided the cover art and page layout design, and coordinated reproduction and publishing. Lori Ann Sheets and Tricia Shaver, MJJ Program Assistants, distributed draft chapters to the committee members.

The Michigan Judicial Institute was created in 1977 by the Michigan Supreme Court. MJJ is responsible for providing educational programs and written materials for Michigan judges and court personnel. In addition to formal seminar offerings, MJJ is engaged in a broad range of publication activities, services, and projects that are designed to enhance the professional skills of all those serving in the Michigan court system. MJJ welcomes comments and suggestions. Please send them to: Michigan Judicial Institute, Michigan Hall of Justice, P.O. Box 30205, Lansing, MI 48909, (517) 373-7171.
